GUERNSEY HAD THREE RACES TO DAY.

Complimentary horses were sent in and this was the first day that the track had the best horses at the racetrack.

Dollars poured into the boxes because they could not think and the money went well-subsidized and well-rewarded.

Owners of some expensive horses of which the star names of the day included the horses of the past.

The track was in fine shape. The action of the day was not very good.

The weather though, the track was pleasant and the track did not give any trouble to the horses.

There was a great deal of racing.
